Article XIII. Financial Standing Policies

A. The Finance Committee may choose to adopt any number of standing policies to help guide the Committee in allocating funds. Such standing policies shall serve only as a guide, and shall not constitute a violation of the Financial Bylaws if not strictly adhered to.

B. All such standing policies must be approved by a majority vote of the Finance Committee.

C. Amendment or removal of standing policies shall require a majority vote of the Finance Committee.

D. All current Financial Standing Policies shall be made publicly available on the ASUCSD website, and in any other location specified by the Vice President Finance.
