RESOLUTION SUPPORTING STUDENT CONTROL OF SRTV

WHEREAS, Student Run Television (SRTV) was founded by the ASUCSD as an entirely student run service for the students of UCSD; and,

WHEREAS, venues like SRTV provide opportunities for students to develop skills that will be beneficial to them in the future; and,

WHEREAS, SRTV provides a valuable arena for speech and expression on the UCSD campus; and,

WHEREAS, President Christopher T. Sweeten submitted a request on Monday, November 7, 2005 at 8:00am to the Interim Assistant Vice Chancellor of Student Life Gary Ratcliff to have the SRTV broadcast reinstated; and,

WHEREAS, the Presidential request was denied by Interim AVC Ratcliff; and,

WHEREAS, the Administration has consistently identified the operation of SRTV as a student issue; and,

WHEREAS, the members of both ASUCSD Council and SRTV have pledged to work together in rewriting the SRTV Charter; and,

WHEREAS, the continued shut down of SRTV by the Administration undermines the good faith relationship between the University and the UCSD students on a student issue; and,

WHEREAS, the Administration is compromising their good-faith relationship with the ASUCSD by not disclosing their intention to not restore the SRTV broadcast when requested; and,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUCSD Council condemns the Administration's refusal to reinstate the broadcast of SRTV; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the ASUCSD Council and the Directors, Producers, and Members of SRTV are hereby committed to working together to get SRTV back on the air and back in the control of students; and,

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the ASUCSD formally requests that the Administration of the University of California, San Diego immediately return control of SRTV to the ASUCSD and restore the broadcast of SRTV on the Triton Cable Network.
